CSC 345-01 Project #3: Virtual Memory Manager

Name: Chris Toala & Eric Rivera
Section: 01 w/ Dr. Yoon

We evenly divided the work and coordinated regularly, including in-person meetings to align our schedules, plan the project, assign tasks, and keep each other updated on both implementation progress and content decisions.

Hey Eric do you have time tmr to talk the project?

I am free all day

Yeah what time works for you tomorrow?

Like early in the morning or afternoon?

I'm a late morning guy 10am-11am ish

Thats fine, I get out of linear algebra at 9:50 tomorrow

Nice I'll aim for then or did you want time for breakfast?

ill have breakfast beforehand, ive been getting up at 5 am for the gym lol

Wow good for you

Sounds great I'll see you then

Yup np!

Thursday 20:54

Main1 got pushed to GitHub I'm gonna take a peak at main2

sweet thank you, i haven't gotten the chance to look at it tonight im currently catching up on linear algebra homework then i have to make my cheat sheet for my database exam tomorrow morning

Don't sweat it good luck with your database exam tmr

Edited

thank you

Friday 21:11

I gave a stab to main2.c if you wanna give a peak and make sure it's right
